ARTISTIC STAFF

Rachel Haider, Theater Specialist

Rachel literally grew up in and around the theater and has performed, choreographed and directed a myriad of theatrical productions with both adults and children of all ages. She brings a broad range of arts experiences to her students, including teaching in the public schools and in private arts organizations. Rachel currently teaches theater at Shattuck-St. Mary's School in Faribault.

Jana Schomburg, Choreographer

In addition to teaching dance at Shattuck-St. Mary's School in Faribault, Jana's choreography credits include numerous theater productions and work for TJ Maxx, Gap Kids, Marshall's and the Easter Seals Telethon. Her students have performed for Target, Disney World and with Will Smith. A judge for various regional and national dance competitions, Jana also has led seminars on public speaking and theater for kids.

Elizabeth Shepley, Musical Director

Liz has taught music in both public and private schools, has chaired inner city music programs in the Twin Cities, and has led conferences and festival choirs nationwide. In addition to her position as artistic director of the Northfield Youth Choirs, she serves as the Director of Children's Choirs at Bethel Lutheran Church in Northfield and as an adjunct faculty member at Luther Seminary. Liz has enjoyed performing in and working as musical director for a number of theater productions.

MUSICAL THEATER CAMP

This summer, Encore! Music Camp is teaming up with the Northfield Arts Guild's "What a Character" theater workshop to bring you a week-long experience in musical theater fun! In addition to vocal training, young performers will build skills in dance, stage presence and character development—both onstage and off. The end result is an actual show...and everyone gets a part!
